AIIM International

Association for Information and Image Management, International

"... the center of an effective business infrastructure in the digital age is the ability to capture, manage, store, preserve and deliver enterprise content to support business processes. The requisite technologies to establish this infrastructure are an extension of AIIM's core document and content technologies."

"AIIM is a neutral and unbiased source of information. We ... are ANSI/ISO-accredited for standards development."

From www.aiim.org/article_aiim.asp?ID=18274, 28 July 2003