

Special Archive U.S. Student Financial Aid

A special collection of documents related to the administration of student financial aid programs in the United States. This special archive includes superceded documents that may still be needed for compliance and litigation, documents not frequently used, and historical references.

These documents are included in both the Master and Archives indices.

Documents referring to general topics, such as student price-response, are included in the Policy Analysis and Institutional Research collection.