

Association of Jesuit Colleges and Universities (US)

“The Association of Jesuit Colleges and Universities (AJCU) is a national organization that represents Jesuit higher education among its various constituencies, provides a forum for the exchange of information and experiences in Jesuit higher education, and encourages and facilitates collaborative initiatives among its member institutions.”

“Those initiatives include: ... supporting national and international collaboration between campuses ... offering online education opportunities through the distance education network, JesuitNET.”