

Anonyms

Documents that could not be validated but came from a usually reliable source, but published anonymously.

Comments on validity are included in the document if known. The source media is identified in the footer.

These documents are typically those that, if public, would cause some harm or embarrassment to the author or the source.