

The Center for Computer-Assisted Legal Instruction (US)

“The Center for Computer-Assisted Legal Instruction (CALI®) is a not-for-profit consortium of law schools dedicated to research and development in computer and web-based legal education.”

“CALI ... researches and develops computer-mediated legal instruction and supports institutions and individuals using technology and distance learning in legal education. CALI was incorporated in 1982 and welcomes membership from law schools, paralegal programs, law firms and individuals wishing to learn more about the law.”
