

Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching (US)

“Chartered in 1906 by an act of Congress, The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching is an independent policy and research center with a primary mission "to do and perform all things necessary to encourage, uphold, and dignify the profession of the teacher and the cause of higher education.”

“Carnegie is an institution whose thinking and actions are organized around teaching and those who teach, from preschool to graduate school. Drawing on its historical mission, Carnegie is dedicated to the dignity of the profession of teaching and the cause of higher education.”
