

Jenzabar Inc. (US)

The Jenzabar story began more than 40 years ago and evolved through a union of history and innovation. Jenzabar.com was founded in 1998 as an Internet portal and eLearning company that provided an online community for university professors, students, and administrators. Two years later, Jenzabar, Inc. was launched as an enterprise software provider to better serve the life cycle needs of higher education.

Exclusively serving higher education, Jenzabar software and services are designed to drive higher performance in every department.
