

Macquarie University (AU)

ARCHIVES

“The visions, missions and goals set by the University ... should be viewed in the context of Macquarie’s distinctive academic role as a modern, research-based university of international excellence: founded in the concept of serving the community; delivering first-rate educational programs ..., distinguished by the conscious application of tested scholarly disciplines to modern needs; driven intellectually by the enquiring spirit of fundamental research; committed to the pursuit of flexible skills and a unity of knowledge ..., demonstrating a particular commitment to postgraduate studies and research training; and making innovative use of modern technologies to enhance academic outcomes and administrative processes.”