The Menlo Innovations LLC (US)

"Menlo was founded by four partners: Richard Sheridan, Thomas Meloche, James Goebel, and Robert Simms in 2001. Located in Ann Arbor, Michigan, Menlo is dedicated to creating an environment of creativity and service for our customers, employees, community, friends and families."

"The Menlo Institute exists to teach the principles learned from Thomas Edison and in The Menlo Software Factory. We seek to improve the software development community through formal training classes, free resources and process mentoring services. These offerings are designed to speak to visionaries, executives, managers and developers."
