

Open Polytechnic of New Zealand

ARCHIVES

“As New Zealand's specialist institution and largest polytechnic, we play an important role in extending learning opportunities. Our job is to improve access and choice, something we do for nearly 40,000 students in New Zealand and over 40 other countries.

“Our students are lifelong learners studying in the home or workplace - people who want to learn but who seek or need an alternative to conventional study.”

From www.openpolytechnic.ac.nz/aboutus/index.html, 3 August 2005