

“The University of Leicester is a leading UK University with a proud past and an exciting future. We deliver high quality undergraduate, postgraduate and professional education and create research that has impact internationally.”

“Leicester has been ranked joint 1st for teaching quality and overall satisfaction amongst mainstream English universities for two successive years by the National Student Survey. Over two thirds of our subjects are in the top 10. “

From www.le.ac.uk/portals/university.html, 9 January 2007