Educational Leadership Forums

Blackboard Turns 10!

Blackboard celebrates a decade of educational innovations by our clients with a special series of educational leadership forums. These forums will bring together experts to discuss some of the most pressing issues impacting education today.

Blackboard Forum #1: "Are America's Students Left Behind"

The first forum, May 16th at the National Press Club, focuses on how the dynamics of a rapidly evolving global economy are impacting America's students.

Meet the Panelists:

Ken Kay, President
Partnership for 21st Century Skills

Susan Patrick, President & CEO
North American Council for Online Learning

Don Knezek, CEO
International Society for Technology in Education

Debra Sprague, Ph.D. Associate Professor, Graduate School of Education
George Mason University
